Program: 1:00 p.m.

Presentation: Sky Bergman, Film Maker

Sky Bergman is an accomplished photographer and filmmaker. She was the former chair of the Art & Design department at Cal Poly, and is currently a Professor of Photography and Video.

Her acclaimed film "Lives Well Lived" – deals with the wit and wisdom adults 75 to 100 years old living their lives to the fullest. Sky's fine art, commercial art and film making are widely recognized.

Her more recent film production deals with the Japanese tradition of making Mochi cakes to celebrate the New Year. Entitled, "Mochitsuki: Celebrating the Japanese New Year", it is a 4-minute short that follows the Eto family of San Luis Obispo as they partake in the ceremonial pounding of cooked rice to create warm Mochi cakes. It is a story of tradition, love, and celebration through one family's annual gathering to make Mochi. The film has already been shown at the Santa Barbara Film Festival. Sky Bergman will discuss the film, and her personal connection to the subject.
